EDITORIAL PROGRAM

Formed in 1981, University of Calgary Press publishes academic and trade Books and journals that engage academic, industry/business, government, and public communities. We focus on works that give voice to the heartland of the continent (the Canadian Northwest, the American West, including the mountain region and the Great Plains); are innovative, experimental, and offer alternative perspectives on established canons and subjects; resonate with international themes, bringing diverse voices and views to the forefront.

We endeavour to help new scholars and writers to break into academic and Trade markets. Always receptive to emerging technologies, U of C Press will use electronic means to bring innovative publications to wider readerships

PROGRAMME ÉDITORIAL

Les Presses de l'Université de Montréal poursuivent quatre objectifs:

1. diffuser les résultats de la recherche universitaire par des livres, des revues savants et l'édition électronique;
2. transférer des connaissances scientifiques à un large public;
3. participer à la vie de la Cité en proposant des réflexions sur des questions d'actualité;
4. contribuer au rayonnement national et international de l'Université de Montréal.

Les PUM publient dans des domaines aussi variés que la littérature, l'histoire, les sciences politiques et sociales et la santé.

Les PUM éditent et diffusent six revues savantes (Circuit, Criminologie, Études françaises, Géographie physique et Quaternaire, Meta, Sociologie et Sociétés) qui appliquent les règles de l'arbitrage par les pairs et dont la grande qualité a été régulièrement reconnue par les comités spécialisés des organismes subventionnaires provinciaux et fédéraux. Par leurs revues, les Presses contribuent à la diffusion des travaux de recherche au Québec et au Canada, et connaissent un rayonnement international important. Elles offrent de plus des services de production à d'autres éditeurs de revues comme Théologiques, Philosophiques, Revue d'histoire de l'Amérique française, Surfaces (revue électronique), etc.
